Only the immediate relatives were present. After the ceremony a delicious wedding supper was served in the pretty little dining-room. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. M. J. Rev. D. M. Gandier delivered a splendid sermon at the union meeting last Sunday night at the Congregational church. His text was from Numbers 13:30, "Let us go up at once, and possess it; for we are well able to overcome it." He applied the text to the liquor business in this county, and said that we can and will close the saloons.

New Process Fancy Red Alaska Salmon REASON WHY IT IS BETTER

San Francisco, Cal., Aug. 19, 1909.

We are the only canners using the so-called NEW PROCESS, although it is not new to us, for this is our tenth season and we like it better as time goes on, for we have less swells than our competitors and our customers like the EXTRA OIL in the tins.

After the first cooking by the old process, our competitors puncture each tin to exhaust the hot air which escapes with such force that it takes with it much of the best juice and oil of the salmon, many cans spouting the juice high in the air, while we exhaust the air without puncturing the tins and do not lose any of the oil, leaving in each tin everything that it put there.

Absolutely everything that is put in the cans is one pound of fish and a quarter of an ounce of salt, so that the juice which escapes when the tins are punctured cannot be anything but the juice or gravy of the salmon. To our minds, in a way, the old process is like putting a roast in the oven and later pouring off much of the best gravy or juice of the meat, then returning it to be finished.

The extra oil on our liquor is quite evident on opening several of our tins alongside of those packed by the old process.

We were also the first in the Bering Sea to use the celebrated "Iron Chink," which cleans the salmon so quickly and thoroughly, thus doing away with handling by Chinese and Japanese, and the liquor on our salmon besides being more oily is thus also cleaner. We are most particular with the processing all through.

We use bright attractive lacquer on the tins and are very careful with the labelling, while the cases are strong and neatly branded.

Although we do not charge any more for it, consider our salmon worth fully 10c per dozen or 40c per case more than our competitors' fish, which is all put up by the old process. It is absolutely impossible to pack successfully by our process any salmon not of Fresh.

Our Brands are—"Deep Sea," "Bering Sea," "Royal Club," "Leader," "Rising Light," "White Bear," "Radium" and "Mohawk."

TEXT-BOOK PROBE TO BE RESUMED IN SAN FRANCISCO

Senatorial Committee Will Make Complete Investigation.

Sacramento.—It has been definitely announced that the investigation of the text book situation will be resumed by the special Senate committee in San Francisco on Monday, September 11th. The hearing will be held in the Ferry building. As at the former hearing Attorney Roache will represent Governor Johnson and will take charge of investigation. According to the information the investigation will be complete in every respect, and not only will State Printer Shannon be summoned again, but Superintendent of Public Instruction Edward Hyatt, and perhaps all of the members of the State Board of Education and George L. Sackett, former secretary of the State Text Book Committee.

Senators Stowbridge, Shanahan, Thompson and Black will be present and will have a sergeant-at-arms and stenographer on hand to bring in the witnesses and take down the testimony.

Sugar Prices Unusually High.

New York.—Grocery concerns here show concern over the high prices now prevailing in the sugar market. There was an advance in granulated to 6.25c, representing a full cent rise in the last few weeks had the highest level in any years. Coming at the height of the canning season, this advance is of vital interest to consumers all over the country. It is attributed primarily to a poor sugar beet crop in Europe, following prolonged drought this summer. To make matters worse, the Cuban crop, which furnishes the bulk of raw material for American refiners, also proved short and prices began to soar.

Seven Millions a Year to China.

Washington.—Treasury officials who have been making a study of exportation of money to China have concluded that no less than $7,000,000 in gold is sent home by Chinese in this country every year. That sum does not include the amounts carried there by returning natives. With further development of the postal bank system, officials predict not only these particular exportations, but those to all other parts of the world, will decrease.

Four Untiring Workers For Fair at San Diego

It would be hard to find four men who are more eminent in their particular branch of the art of architecture than those who will construct the Panama-California Exposition at San Diego.

At the head of this group is one of the half-dozen great architects of the country, Bertram G. Goodhue, designer of cathedrals and public buildings, writer of technical works on architecture and history.

Goodhue is designing the buildings for the San Diego Exposition. His only instructions are in the form of information as to how much money can be spent and he has been encouraged to give full play to his creative genius. This genius has produced some of the notable edifices of the New World and Goodhue has intimated that he will attempt here to fix for all time the form of expression for Spanish-Colonial, or "mission" architecture.

The second of this group, John Charles Olmsted, is a landscape artist, one of the famous Olmsted Brothers, members of the National Art Commission and designers of some of the most beautiful parks and public and private grounds in America. Olmsted has an undeveloped tract of land of 1400 acres to work on and his plans are magnificent. He has established a nursery and system of hot houses already and promises masses of color and acres of forests for the exposition that have excited the admiration of all who have been fortunate enough to see his plans.

Irving J. Gill is associated with Goodhue as his local representative, and he is an architect of reputation and standing throughout the country. It will fall to Gill to carry out the details of the plans prepared by Goodhue as the buildings are constructed.

The fourth of the group is Frank P. Allen, Jr., builder of expositions and of great structures generally. He it was who completed the Alaska-Yukon Exposition before the opening day so that the sound of hammer or saw was not heard in the entire exposition when it was opened,—everything was complete.

This astonishing feat was performed in 19 months, after months of delay and heart breaking discouragement to the projectors of the exposition itself. Allen was called in at practically the last moment. They tell with some amusement now in Seattle, how Allen tore up plans, fired "experts," destroyed defective work and started almost at the beginning again. It is an actual fact that not a single hammer nor saw was heard when the gates were thrown open to the public.

He had almost as great success at Portland with the Lewis and Clark Exposition, though he did not have charge there, and as he is in entire sympathy and accord with Goodhue and Olmsted, both of whom he recognizes as the best men in their profession, these three form an architectural triumvirate from which great things will proceed. As nearly as possible in such a project, these men have been given "carte blanche." The result is certain to be the most beautiful set of buildings for the Panama-California Exposition that art and science can produce.

"Pegs" and "Tubs" Cross Bats For Girl's Cork Leg

Spokane.—Walter Shore's Wonders, a team of local men wearing artificial limbs, and Joseph Adams' Mastodons, composed of nine men weighing 2825 pounds, played a match game of baseball at Recreation Park, Spokane, recently for the benefit of Viola M. Schumacher, 16 years of age who was crippled in a railway accident last March. The game was largely attended and provided funds to pay the girls hospital bills and buy an artificial leg. The Wonders claimed the game by a score of 37 to 19, but Fred S. Radcliff, formerly Sheriff of Whitman county, Wash., declares the Wonders got away with it by a score of 23 to 7. Radcliff, who weighs 410 pounds, caught for the fat boys, the pitcher being Dr. T. E. Callahan, 290 pounds, who played professional ball in Baltimore years ago. The lightest man on the Mastodons' team was George Brownlee, 240 pounds, others weighing from 250 to 300 pounds. Eight players on the Wonders' team wear artificial legs, and Manager Shore has a wooden arm. Both teams are pleased over the showings made and another game may be played in two weeks.

Lone Survivor of an Indian Tribe Is Captured

Chico.—The last known survivor of the Mill Creek and Deer Creek Indians, whose atrocities made hideous pages in the annals of early California, was captured two miles from Oroville while attempting to steal meat from slaughter house. Driven from the fastnesses of the Feather River country by foresters he was taken to the Oroville jail. Indians of surviving tribes were summoned, but were unable to talk to him. A number of deputy sheriffs offered

MANY WOMEN REFUSE TO BE JURORS IN SPOKANE

Expressions of Several Who Decline, Setting Forth Their Reasons.

Spokane, Wash.—The women drawn for jury duty at the coming term of the Spokane County Superior Court declare they will not serve unless compelled to do so by law.

Mrs. Sarah Witherell, the first woman drawn for the venire, voiced the sentiments of her sisters in saying that while women should use their franchise in voting for good government, she believes jury duty is a man's work.

"I voted because I am a taxpayer," she added, "and because I had the right to vote."

Mrs. Flora P. Atchison said: "There are certain cases where it is all right for a woman to serve on a jury, but they are scattered. I will not serve if called. My home is the place for me. I am not an advocate of the equal suffrage cause, although I think women will be able to accomplish much good with their votes."

Mrs. E. G. Hubbard told her story in a few words: "I prefer to stay at home, for I think that is the woman's place. Woman jurors on a divorce case? Oh! My! No!"

Badly Mixed Shipment Wrecked.

Marysville.—If there is a hoodoo in a combination of unmixable merchandise, the yardmen of the Southern Pacific here believe it worked, causing the wreck which tied up the traffic in the local yards. Only one car of a freight train was wrecked. This was car No. 5087. It buckled and was smashed to kindling wood. In the wreckage was found a consignment of coffins, a number of demijohns of whisky, several boxes of cigarettes and a number of boxes of bibles. The various boxes were smashed and the bibles, cigarettes, demijohns and coffins were piled in one mass.

Last Meeting of Forty-Niners.

Chicago.—The last of the "Forty-niners" will say farewell next month. Because of the old age of its members the organization will disband. The surviving handful of old men who in their youth endured the hardships of the long journey over the plains, mountains and desert or the sea voyage around Cape Horn to reach the gold fields of California, will meet at Evanston on September 14th to disband their organization.

Buried in Ice Fourteen Years.

Berne, Switzerland.—Tourists, while crossing the Loetschen glacier, saw deep down in the clear ice the faces of two dead men. Guides accompanying the party chipped out with their axes the frozen bodies of the two men and brought them to the surface. The bodies have not yet been identified, but they are probably those of two London tourists named Bemebecke and Coin, who disappeared 14 years ago.

Deer Driven to the Brush.

Redlands.—Mountaineers claim that the recent forest fires on the north slope have driven all the deer to the brush slopes of the east range and that the best deer hunting will be found there this year. Many parties will leave this city early in order to be in the mountains when the season opens. Mountaineers say the deer are more plentiful this year than last.

Food Riots in France.

Paris.—So extortionate are the prices of food in the northern districts of France that thousands of starving men, women and children are charging the drawn bayonets of troops to loot the bakeries and meat shops. In no fewer than 40 cities food riots occurred. The trouble is spreading all over France—even to Paris.

Employers' Liability Act in Force.

Sacramento.—The Roseberry employers' liability act, enacted by the 1911 Legislature, is now operative. The law provides for compensation for the accidental injury of employees, and establishes an industrial accident board. This board consists of A. J. Pillsbury, Will S. French and Willis I. Morrison.

Dynamites His Own Home.

Oakland.—Charles H. Pickard was found guilty by a jury in Judge Bledsoe's court of dynamiting his own home in Melrose several weeks ago, thereby seriously injuring Constable Al. Kahn, who was there for the purpose of seizing Pickard's furniture for his divorced wife.

Fell Into Glacial Crevasse.

Since May, 1906, Ayer's Sarsaparilla has been entirely free from alcohol. If you are in poor health, weak, pale, nervous, ask your doctor about taking this non-alcoholic tonic and alternative. If he has a better medicine, take his. Get the best always. This is our advice.

A sluggish liver means a coated tongue, a bad breath, and constipated bowels. The question is, "What is the best thing to do under such circumstances?" Ask your doctor if this is not a good answer: "Take laxative doses of Ayer's Pills."

FACTS AND FANCIES ABOUT THE TROPICAL HOOK-WORM

Hot Moist Climate and Improper Sewage Favorable to Germ.

Henry J. Nichols, U. S. A., corrects some of the ideas that have been lately advanced about the results of the presence of the hook-worm in the intestine. He thinks that unless present in large numbers these worms give few symptoms and do not produce enough anemia to cause the general laziness of the inhabitants of the tropics. Cases infected in the latitude of New York State are rare. The soil necessary for their existence must be both hot and moist, and when it is hot enough here it is too dry for the larvae. Also in this climate there is not the marked contamination of the ground with fecal matter that is found in communities where there are practically no toilet facilities, and where the feces are deposited as a rule on the ground. In Porto Rico many of the inhabitants are severely infected, while in the Philippines although infection is frequent the number of worms in each patient is small. Other diseases are a much greater menace here and in the Philippines than the hook-worm disease. The worm does not multiply rapidly after entering the system, and is easily driven out. The essential point is the degree of infection with the worms. Light infections are practically negligible. Damage caused by other organisms may be ascribed to the hook-worm. The efforts that are made against it should be in the line of the proper disposal of excreta.—Medical Record.

Near-Sighted.

"Good morning, Mrs. Simpkins!" said a suburban lady who is very short-sighted. "Your husband must be very fond of gardening. I see him the first thing every morning down at the bottom of the garden. And how well he looks, to be sure!"

Mrs. Simpkins slammed the door in her neighbor's face. The latter went to tell her daughter.

"And you said, mother, that the thing in the onion bed was her husband?"

"Ah, well, that explains the matter! What you took for Mr. Simpkins is a scarecrow."—Tit-Bits.

Watery.

"There's no use talkin'," said Mr. Dustin Stax, "this corporation of ours will have to dissolve."

"How will you go about it?"

"I don't know. The only way I know of to dissolve things is to keep putting water into them."—Washington Star.

THRONGS COME TO SEE MUNYON

Surprising Number of Visitors Shows Interest in Expert.

Local Folk Testify: Stomach Trouble Conquered and Rheumatism Pangs Overcome.

One of the most remarkable features about Prof. J. M. Munyon is the extraordinary amount of attention he has attracted. Here and all over the country, the immense crowds that have been flocking to see him, and the large quantity of mail he receives daily at his headquarters, Munyon's Laboratories, 53d and Jefferson Sts., Philadelphia. He receives mail and visitors from every city in the United States and Canada. Most notable is the fact that rich and poor come to him alike, and a few hours spent at the side of the physician is a most interesting study in human nature.

Many remarkable cases of relief secured were related at the store this week.

One was that of a man who had suffered from indigestion and stomach trouble for more than ten years. He said:

"I think I had one of the worst cases of stomach trouble on record. I could not digest anything I ate. Food fermented in my stomach and formed gas, which passed out in the abdomen and up under my heart, and at times made me suffer so badly I expected to die. I had intense headaches and frequent attacks of dizziness, and I grew short of breath when I attempted to walk up stairs. I was also much constipated. I came here a short while ago and took Munyon's full course of stomach treatment. Now I must admit I feel like a new man. I can eat anything I want with no distress afterward, and all of the other symptoms of my trouble have disappeared. I notice particularly that my head is much clearer and my brain works better. I am full of ambition and energy and enjoy life hugely. I can never tell how glad I am that I had the good sense to try this Munyon treatment."

Another enthusiastic visitor was a woman who declared that her mother had been relieved of rheumatism in a most remarkable manner. She said:

"My mother was flat on her back in bed with rheumatism, sciatic, muscular and inflammatory. Doctors had pronounced her case almost incurable and we had about given up hope of her ever being able to walk again. I procured a treatment for her from one of these Munyon doctors, and today she is able to get about the house with perfect ease and can go out of doors, and in fact, do anything that a woman of her age might be expected to do. The rheumatic pains and inflammation have entirely disappeared. I think this Munyon treatment is a positive wonder-worker."

Letters addressed to Prof. J. M. Munyon Personally, Munyon's Laboratories, 53d and Jefferson Sts., Philadelphia, Pa., or callers who apply at that address, will receive free medical advice. There is not a penny to pay for the fullest and most painstaking medical examination. You are made to feel, whether by personal interview, or letter, that the advice is absolutely free and you are not under any obligation to follow it.

SAN FRANCISCO ANNUAL FALL FASHION SHOW

Railroads Make One and One-Third Fare for Out of Town Visitors.

The annual Fall Fashion Show will be held by the leading merchants of San Francisco, September 14th, 15th, 16th, and will be the greatest event of its kind ever held in this country. It represents a new phase of modern business which enables active competitors to unite in some things without in any way lessening the keen edge of competition. Thus the most important stores dealing in ready to wear apparel for women, men and children, have agreed to hold their annual Fall openings simultaneously for the three days. Prizes will be offered for the best dressed show windows, etc., and every effort made to outdo each other at this time. The newest goods from the markets of the world will be on display. Suits, coats, dresses, gowns, millinery and garments of every description will be ready for inspection. The big shops who send their buyers to Paris have made special efforts to have the Fall models ready at this time, as well as the finest goods produced in the ateliers of New York. The whole retail district of San Francisco will be en fete with window displays, merchandise displays and probably a brilliant electric illumination, of the principal thoroughfares. The Fashion Show has already taken its place among the festival events of the city and affords a wonderful opportunity to every one. Its importance has been recognized by all the railroads of the State, the Southern Pacific, Santa Fe, Western Pacific and Northwestern Pacific having united in making a special round trip rate of one and one-third fare for all points within a radius of two hundred miles. The railroad tickets are on sale going September 13th, 14th, 15th, and are good returning up to September 18th.

Euphony in Names.

One often finds euphony existing in the names of couples who go to the altar but rarely to the extent of that recorded in a Cloquet paper, which chronicles the marriage of Charles B. Gosh and Annie B. Damm under the caption of "Gosh-Damm." The good gentleman of the cloth who performed the ceremony doubtless had a hard task, but he bravely overcame the difficulty by coughing violently every time he was called upon to pronounce the bride's name.—St. Paul Pioneer Press.

Housework Drudgery

Housework is drudgery for the weak woman. She brushes, dusts and scrubs, or is on her feet all day attending to the many details of the household, her back aching, her temples throbbing, nerves quivering under the stress of pain, possibly dizzy feelings. Sometimes rest in bed is not refreshing, because the poor tired nerves do not permit of refreshing sleep. The real need of weak, nervous women is satisfied by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

It Makes Weak Women Strong and Sick Women Well.

This "Prescription" removes the cause of women's weaknesses, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures those weaknesses so peculiar to women. It tranquilizes the nerves, encourages the appetite and induces restful sleep.

Dr. Pierce is perfectly willing to let every one know what his "Favorite Prescription" contains, a complete list of ingredients on the bottle-wrapper. Do not let any unscrupulous druggist persuade you that his substitute of unknown composition is "just as good" in order that he may make a bigger profit. Just smile and shake your head! "Yes," said Miss Knox, "I saw her in that new spring suit of hers, and she really behaved as if she were happy."

"Well?" queried Miss Ascum.

"Well, it's remarkable how happy some people can be, no matter how they look."—Exchange.

Suspicious.

John Williams had been "bad" again.

"Ah, me, Johnny!" sighed his Sunday school teacher, "I am afraid we shall never meet in heaven."

"What have you been doin'?" asked Johnny.—Harper's.
